

The adventures of Captain Kirk "special dragons" P1

After their performance at the Stonestook Festival, our two heroes are back at the base with Edgard. The Professor is very angry.

-I am very upset Edgard, you had disappeared with the aircraft and I received an accident report. In addition, I had prepared a thermonuclear bomb to destroy the dinosaurs of Winter Edition and it disappeared at the same time as you!

Especially since we are talking about a very powerful explosion on the Ark of the Covenant side, you will need to explain it to me, prepare the aircraft and stop playing with the ball.

- I'm getting ready for the Super Bowl Professor!

-When I heard about a comic band at the Stonestock festival between the two of you, I hope you had nothing to do with it!

-Good! Good! My friends, this is a serious time of year, we have to get Kirk back.

The Great Anubis contacted me and invited me to come and see him despite serious burns caused by "a domestic accident", he told me. He told me about a potion based on dragon eggs that would be effective. Do whatever it takes to find some of them. Be careful, Kirk's fate depends on you.

-It's okay Batman, there's enough, it's the 8th trip we're making! And their parents are getting angry!

-These last three, to make a nice omelette and let's go. It's weird, I feel like I'm being followed!

I can't wait to taste these eggs!

Indeed, Sakura's two agents are on their trail.

-So, boss, this is their lead?

-Yes, they're not far now, here! What's that big bird there?

-Looks like he's watching his nest, boss!

-Anyway, he's looking at us funny!

Yes boss

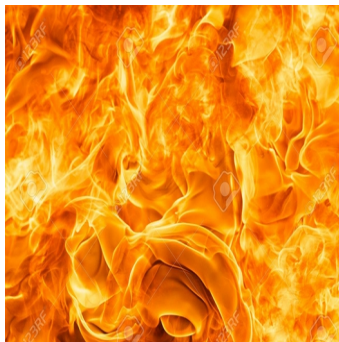

In Sakura, in his clinic, the doc. Chewbacca, visits his two new patients.

-How could two great agents like you get burned like that?

-We were on the trail of Batman and Tutankhamun, when suddenly, in the middle of a field, there was a huge explosion followed by a monstrous flame, no doubt, due to a gas leak!

-A gas leak in the middle of a field! I have a good idea Starsky and Hutch, I'll prescribe 6 weeks of rest for overwork.

What an adventure! Can the eggs collected save Captain Kirk?

The sequel to the next episode.
